

Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, 2026 ("Effective Date"), by and between Botlien, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Botlien"), and _____, a _____ ("Counterparty") (each a "Party" and together the "Parties").

1. Purpose

The Parties wish to explore a potential business relationship involving robot fleet telemetry data access, collateral risk monitoring, and related financing or leasing arrangements (the "Purpose"). In connection with the Purpose, each Party may disclose to the other certain confidential technical, business, and financial information.

2. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by either Party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other (the "Receiving Party"), whether oral, written, or in any other form, that is designated as confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure. This includes, without limitation: business plans, financial information, fleet operational data, API access details, technical architecture, pricing, and the existence and substance of the Parties' discussions.

3. Exclusions

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the Receiving Party; (b) was already known to the Receiving Party prior to disclosure, without an obligation of confidentiality; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or (d) is rightfully received from a third party without breach of any confidentiality obligation.

4. Obligations

The Receiving Party agrees to: (a) use the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information solely for the Purpose; (b) protect it using at least the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, and no less than reasonable care; (c) not disclose it to any third party without the Disclosing Party's prior written consent, except to employees, advisors, or affiliates who need to know it for the Purpose and are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as this Agreement; and (d) not use it to reverse engineer, compete with, or gain unfair advantage against the Disclosing Party outside the Purpose.

5. No Obligation, No License

Nothing in this Agreement obligates either Party to proceed with any transaction, pilot, or further business relationship. No license or other right to any intellectual property is granted by this Agreement, whether by implication or otherwise.

6. Term

This Agreement remains in effect for two (2) years from the Effective Date. The confidentiality obligations in Section 4 survive for three (3) years following any disclosure of Confidential Information, regardless of the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7. Required Disclosure

If the Receiving Party is required by law, regulation, or court order to disclose Confidential Information, it shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Disclosing Party with prompt written notice so the Disclosing Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy.

8. Return or Destruction

Upon the Disclosing Party's written request, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information in its possession, except for copies retained as required by law or standard backup/archival procedures, which remain subject to this Agreement.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

10. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior discussions or agreements on that subject. Any amendment must be in writing and signed by both Parties.
